

Sovereignty Prayer

Securing Your Personal Sovereignty

I call upon God (or Source), and the help of Archangels Michael, Raphael, Metatron, Archafax, my compassionate psychopomp beings (psychopomps are your personal enlightened helping spirits that help beings and energy transition to where they belong).

I hereby invoke the Universal Law of Personal Sovereignty and my divine right to sovereignty and my personal intention to be fully sovereign. By the power given to me by God (Source), I invoke my right to sovereignty of space, place, and person.

I ask Archangel Archafax to fully encapsulate me, creating an inescapable, impermeable shuttle to transport all energies and/or beings that don't belong with me and don't serve my highest good. Please provide Divine protection over my home and my family and protect them in every way from being affected by any aspect of the energies being removed from my field or body.

Archangel Michael, in this moment, will you please remove any energies of any kind that may be with my physical body, my spirit bodies, my spirit, my soul, including energies which may be within the hidden places that do not serve my highest good. I also request that all such energies be removed from this space where I am, as well.

Archangel Michael, I ask that you benevolently transmute non-conscious and/or non-sentient energies to light and humanely cocoon any conscious or sentient beings within the Light of Source and then according to the will of Source, compassionately transport them to the next best place that serves their's and all beings' highest good.

Spiritual Healing

May the Light of Source completely fill my physical and spirit bodies, filling the resulting voids and fully transmuting any residual energies that don't belong with me, sending them to the belly of the Earth.

Archangel Michael, please clear, heal, and attune my spirit gates and balance them for the demands of this day and for my highest good. Please be ever-present and support my full and complete sovereignty through this day and night.

Archangel Metatron, please clear, heal, and attune my chakras. I also request that you balance all of my chakras and their related systems. I ask that I be filled with love, kindness, joy and peace and all that is in my highest good. I request the Blessing Field be with me and supply the healing and blessings needed by my spirit and my body today.

I ask Archangel Raphael to heal and restore my mind, my physical body, my spirit bodies, my spirit, and my soul to my divine blueprint.

Thank you, Archangels Michael, Metatron, Raphael and Archafax for your help in securing and maintaining my sovereignty.

Restoring Power

Archangel Michael, will you please heal and restore, in perfect timing, any vital power that I have lost, surrendered, including that which has been taken, or is missing.

Archangel Michael, I also request that my Body Protectors are with me today, all day, and that they support me in maintaining my personal sovereignty.

Thank you for this healing work.
